Trip Tips:

If you taking any prescription medicine, you will need to bring a supply of these medicines with you to last for the duration of your trip. This is because your type of medicine or brand of medicine may not be available here. Even if that medicine is available, it may be of dubious quality or may even be counterfeit. However, you should still bring your prescription with you in case something happens to your medication. Recommended:

When shopping for arts and crafts in Siem Reap, Rajana Association Khmer Art & Craft is a good place to go. They provide employment for Cambodians in the production and marketing of contemporary and traditional crafts. You can get good bargains on arts and crafts, and help young Cambodians at the same time. Three locations: Old Market, Sivatha Blvd., & Angkor National Museum Mall. Website: www.rajanaacrafts.org

It is shrouded in undergrowth and has the huge roots of old Banyan trees growing on it, and it looks much the same as when French explorers came here 140 years ago. After Ta Prohm, we head for Banteay Kdei and the nearby lake of Sras Srang, 'the King's Bath,' which was used for ritual bathing.
